Thank you for stopping by to download a copy of my 2020 speaker packet!

I've included my speaking topics, booking information and speaking fees. I also encourage you to check out my speaking clips at barbroose.com/speaking as part of your research.

As a long-time church staffer and former conference leader, I know that finding the right speaker for your event is one of many top priorities. Therefore, my top priority to serve you by providing all information that you need as quickly and efficiently as possible. This includes timely responses to phone calls and emails!

While I've provided a lot of helpful information in this packet, there are three things that you should also know about me:

1. My relationship with Christ is the most important relationship in my life.
2. I love teaching straight from the Bible and equipping audiences to walk in God's life-transforming truth.
3. I'm fun and easy to work with! Check out my recommendations from event planners and I can provide more five-star recommendations upon request.

If you're planning an event this year, let's talk! I'd also love to send you a complimentary copy of one of my Bible studies. Send me an email with your mailing address and I will send one to you.

I trust that God will lead and guide you through your planning process. No matter who speaks at your event, I will be praying for you!

All God's best to you,

Barb

Barb Roose Recommendations

Barb spoke at our Women's Fall Kick-Off Event for our small groups. She was engaging, humorous, and so authentic in her presence and message. God's Word was her central focus, and she was not afraid to challenge us and bring us out of our comfort zone. As a result, we have a lot of women involved in our fall small groups, doing the Joshua study.

-Rebecca Perkins, St. John's Mennonite

Her passion for God, and her obedience to speaking His truth was powerful. She was great to work with before and after the event. She was confident in how she carries herself, but humble and personal in dealing with the lives of those she served. A few of our leaders have picked up her materials and have stayed in touch, as they have been spiritually impacted by the truth of God that Barb has shared. A servant of God, full of hope and truth.

-Rex Stump, Fellowship of Christian Athletes Area Director

Barb made the biggest impact of any speaker at our full day leadership conference. She was able to connect with our audience of young professionals in a dynamic way and months later they are still talking about her! Her message was tailored perfectly for our audience and challenged them to make the most of the day.

-Sara Swisher, Executive Director of EPIC Toledo

Barb lead our "Courageous Women" conference and was an absolute delight. She has the power to connect with all women and energize them. She told engaging stories that helped us all see how God works and is present in our every day lives. We learned how to let worry stop conquering our fears and how to lead our best lives

-Tricia Fox, Marietta First United Methodist Church

She used to Word of God to bring women before the throne. She captivated the audience and when she was finished, you knew you had heard what God wanted you to hear. I would recommend her to any audience.

-Catrina Hubbard, Rise Up Conference

Barb was a keynote speaker at our women's conference just this past weekend. She was a pleasure to work with, so flexible and positive. When Barb got up on the platform to speak she just came alive. She connected with the women and shared a powerful message. I highly recommend Barb as a speaker for your event.

Compassion International Ambassador

Some conference and event planners like to include an outreach or serving opportunities for their guests. If so, I'm an ambassador for Compassion International, a Christ-centered relief agency dedicated to releasing children from poverty in Jesus' name.

I would love to talk with you about a small 10-minute presentation at the during a long break or at lunch time.

As a long-time veteran of short-term missions, I will share about what I've learned about God's love while building homes and teaching children about Jesus in a country with the highest murder rate in the world.

I'd love to bring a selection of child sponsor packets from all over the world (or a specific geographical area supported by your church). At the end of 10-minute story, I will extend an opportunity to the audience to make a difference in the life of a child.

There is no absolutely NO pressure nor will individuals end up on a mailing list or receive phone calls after the event unless they choose to make a decision to save a child's life through sponsorship.

You can view my Compassion International profile at Compassion.com/barbroose.

BONUS! Women's Ministry/Small Group Leader Workshop

Do you want more women to experience your Bible studies?
Are you looking to attract new volunteers or recruit new leaders?

“The presentation left me wanting more – more info, more training, more insights into reaching women for Jesus. Thanks for having a well-organized, informative, and inspiring workshop.”

-Amy E.

When you book me for a women's conference or retreat, I would love to provide a BONUS women's ministry workshop session for your women's ministry leaders or small group leaders. I love equipping leaders to love and serve others - and it is a joy for me to invest in local churches everywhere!

For 14 years, I served on staff at my local church. One of my roles as Executive Director of Ministry for our five campuses and 9,000 attendees was developing training resources and curriculum for our 400+ small group and Bible study leaders. I'm passionate about teaching leaders how to lead others well, how to recruit new leaders and grow spiritually themselves.

I offer three workshops that focus on increasing Bible study attendance, attracting and retaining volunteers and connecting with the next generation. I've facilitated these workshops at LifeWay Christian Stores, churches and during leadership events.

Workshop #1: Creating Connection for Women at Every Age and Stage

Workshop #2: Beautiful Bible Studies: Draw Women In & Keep Them Coming Back

Workshop #3: Filling the Seats: Successfully Promote Your Next Women's Event

Let's talk about how to add a 90-minute workshop either before, during or after your event. I would love to add value to the leaders who serve your church so well - and this is a great event to invite new or prospective leaders.

Just let me know which workshop you'd like for me to facilitate for your leaders. Handouts are available for duplication.
